This case is before the Court on a Report and Recommendation filed by United States Magistrate Judge George J. Limbert, regarding the change of plea hearing of Erin Lavin, which was referred to the Magistrate Judge with the consent of the parties.

On May 11, 2011, the government filed a one-count Indictment, charging Defendant, Erin Lavin, with Structuring International Monetary Transfers, in violation of Title 31 United States Code, Section 5324(c)(3) and (d)(1). Defendant Lavin was arraigned on May 27, 2011, and entered a plea of not guilty to Count 1, before Magistrate Judge George J. Limbert. On August 23, 2011, Magistrate Judge George J. Limbert, received Defendant Lavin's plea of guilty to Count 1, of the Indictment and issued a Report and Recommendation ("R&R") concerning whether the plea should be accepted and a finding of guilty entered.

Neither party submitted objections to the Magistrate Judge's R&R in the ten days after it was issued.

On de novo review of the record, the Magistrate Judge's R&R is adopted. Defendant Erin Lavin is found to be competent to enter a plea and to understand her constitutional rights. She is aware of the charges and of the consequences of entering a plea. There is an adequate factual basis for the plea. The Court finds the plea was entered knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily. The plea agreement is approved.

Therefore, Defendant Lavin is adjudged guilty to Count 1 of the Indictment, in violation of Title 31 United States Code, Section 5324(c)(3) and (d)(1). This matter was referred to the U. S. Probation Department for the completion of a pre-sentence investigation and report. Sentencing will be on November 3, 2011, at 10:00 a.m. in Courtroom 19-A, Carl B. Stokes United States Court House, 801 West Superior Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
